

Preliminary Information Sheet Concerning the TCM-Recognized Degree Programs

SEC Reg. No. 13617

(TCM Workers' Continuing Education Program)

What is the main objective of the "degree programs"?

These degree programs are designed for those who desire to enhance pastoral or other personal ministry skills with a focus in the area of church leadership.

What are these "degree programs"?

The programs are: Diploma in Theology, Associate in Theology, Bachelor of Theology (Men), Bachelor of Religious Education (Women), Bachelor of Arts in Theology (Men), Bachelor of Arts in Religious Education (Women).

Who may enroll in these programs? All students must demonstrate a life of genuine Christian character, hold sound doctrinal beliefs, and have been active in a local church. Continuing education students are called of God to spiritual leadership and witness. For Level I (Non-Workers), they must possess or have completed elementary level of education, or its equivalent, for Diploma in Theology; secondary level, for Associate in Theology; college level, for Bachelor of Theology (Men) and Bachelor of Religious Education (Women); and degree holders, for Bachelor of Arts in Theology (Men) & Bachelor of Arts in Religious Education (Women). Level II: TCM Workers/Completed Four Years of Bible School, Field Bible School, or its equivalent: Associate in Theology (Men) & Associate in Religious Education (Women), for elementary level; Bachelor of Arts in Theology (Men) & Bachelor of Arts in Religious Education (Women), for secondary and college levels. TCM Workers (degree holders): Master of Arts in Theology, major in Christian Leadership (Men) and Master of Arts in Religious Education (Women).

Who is offering these programs?

These programs are offered by Things to Come Mission, Inc., Philippines through its Workers' Continuing Education Program in partnership with the TCM-IGBI residential schools. These programs will be given over sight by the Education Committee of TCM.

Are the programs accredited?

The TCM Workers' Continuing Education Program is an instituted program of the Mission. Since these degree programs are an offshoot of the continuing education program, a creation of the TCM board, and in partnership with the TCM-IGBI residential schools, therefore, they enjoy the status of being TCM-accredited and recognized programs.

How long are these programs?

Modular format of teaching will be held twice a year through seminars. Each module will include two classes (3 hours). Therefore, the students should complete 6 hours per year completing the program in 5 years. The modules will be taught in two to three days per seminar. Subjects will be taught in class sessions of 90 minutes each.
